BROWNS

ORGANIZATION

2007 SEASON

PHIL SAVAGE

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT & GENERAL MANAGER

Phil Savage was named Senior Vice President and General Manager on Jan. 6, 2005. Savage, a 17-year veteran of the NFL, is known throughout the NFL as one of the league's top talent evaluators. Savage implements the organizational strategy for football operations and is responsible for all pro and college personnel acquisitions. Savage works directly with Head Coach Romeo Crennel in determining goals and needs for the team and arranging financial guidelines and parameters for contract negotiations and budgets.

In continuing to rebuild the Browns roster, Savage and his staff were aggressive in free agency by signing veteran players. Savage addressed several offensive needs by signing LG Eric Steinbach (Cincinnati), RG Seth McKinney (Miami), RB Jamal Lewis (Baltimore) and acquiring WR Tim Carter (N.Y. Giants) via trade. Defensively, Savage added veteran depth by signing DE Robaire Smith (Tennessee), DT Shaun Smith (Cincinnati), LB Antwan Peek (Houston) and DB Kenny Wright (Washington). During the 2007 NFL Draft, Savage orchestrated the addition of seven players, including three heralded prospects on the first day—OT Joe Thomas (Wisconsin) with the third overall selection, and moving up to select QB Brady Quinn (Notre Dame) with the 22nd selection, and DB Eric Wright (UNLV) in the second round.

In 2006, Savage worked with Crennel to upgrade the roster by adding veterans OL LeCharles Bentley (New Orleans), OL Kevin Shaffer (Atlanta), TE Darnell Dinkins (Baltimore), and veteran WR Joe Jurevicius (Seattle). Defensively, Savage added leadership by inking 12-year veteran LB Willie McGinest (New England) and 15-year veteran NT Ted Washington (Oakland) and also added P Dave Zastudil (Baltimore) to solidify the special teams. During the 2006 NFL Draft, Savage added ten draft selections including first round choice LB Kamerion Wimbley (Florida State) with the 13th selection and LB D'Qwell Jackson (Maryland) in the second round. Both made significant contributions as rookies as Wimbley set a franchise rookie record with 11.5 sacks and Jackson started in 13 games and recorded 115 tackles.

Savage and owner Randy Lerner brought Romeo Crennel on board as head coach for the 2005 season and jointly, Savage and Crennel, orchestrated the re-structuring of the football operations for the Browns organization. In 2005, Savage used eight draft selections to bring an infusion of youth to the roster, including first round WR Braylon Edwards, second round selection S Brodney Pool and third round pick QB Charlie Frye.

Prior to rejoining the Browns, Savage spent the previous nine seasons with the Baltimore organization, including the last two (2003-04) as the Ravens' Director of Player Personnel and worked directly with general manager Ozzie Newsome to oversee both college and pro scouting. In his nine years with the Ravens organization, Savage witnessed the franchise earn a 72-71-1 regular season record during that span, including three post-season appearances with a 5-2 record, and the highlight—winning Super Bowl XXXV over the N.Y. Giants in 2000 after a 12-4 record.

During his tenure in Baltimore (1996-2004), the Ravens drafted 10 Pro Bowlers: T Jonathan Ogden (D1a, 1996), LB Ray Lewis (D1b, 1996), WR/PR Jermaine Lewis (D5, 1996), LB Peter Boulware (D1, 1997), DB Chris McAlister (D1, 1999), RB Jamal Lewis (D1a, 2000), LB Adalius Thomas (D6, 2000), TE Todd Heap (D1, 2001), S Ed Reed (D1, 2002) and LB Terrell Suggs (D1a, 2003).

Savage spent the first seven years of his career in the coaching ranks. In 1987, he joined Bill Curry's staff at the University of Alabama as a graduate assistant. In 1988-89, he coached the TEs before following offensive coordinator Homer Smith to UCLA in a similar capacity. Savage was hired by Mike Riley (current head coach at Oregon State) as RBs/TEs coach for the San Antonio Riders of the World League.

One month passed before the Cleveland Browns called and Savage left for Cleveland to become part of Bill Belichick's first coaching staff in the spring of 1991. For the next three seasons, Savage worked under then-defensive coordinator Nick Saban (now head coach at the University of Alabama). During that time, Savage assisted with the DBs, analyzed opponent tapes, compiled scouting reports and in his first exposure to scouting, conducted campus workouts in preparation for the college draft.

In 1994, Savage moved to the player personnel side of the business full-time as an area scout on the West Coast and was elevated to national scout for the 1995 season. When the franchise moved to Baltimore in 1996, he became the director of college scouting, a post he held for seven years before being promoted to director of player personnel prior to the 2003 NFL Draft.

During the offseason, Phil enjoys working on two football-related projects, Camp Savage and Winners Influence. In the summer of 2007, he conducted his 17th annual skills camp for high school quarterbacks and receivers in his hometown of Mobile, Ala. Over 1,300 athletes have participated over the years and many have continued their careers at the college level, including former LSU standout and the first overall selection in the 2007 NFL Draft, QB JaMarcus Russell and current West Virginia signal caller, Pat White. Phil and his brother, Joe, have partnered together in organizing Winners Influence. Their idea is to 'influence the influencers' across the nation by ministering to NFL coaches and scouts, business leaders and pastors. Phil has shared his Christian testimony with over 100 audiences from coast-to-coast and, in 2001, he and Joe assembled a combined football camp and mission trip to Cancun, Mexico.

Savage attended Murphy High School in Mobile before playing football and baseball at the University of the South (Sewanee, Tenn.). He earned a B.A. in English and was a three-time All-Conference shortstop in baseball. He received a Master's degree in physical education from the University of Alabama in 1989.

Savage's wife Dorothy is an accomplished theatrical actress. Savage was born April 7, 1965, in Mobile, Ala.

ROMEO CRENNELHEAD COACHYear with Browns (Head Coach): 3rdYear in NFL: 27th

Romeo Crennel was named head coach of the Cleveland Browns on Feb. 8, 2005, the 11th full-time head coach in franchise history. Crennel returned to Cleveland in 2005 after serving as the Browns defensive coordinator in 2000 and along with Phil Savage helped rebuild the football operations. Crennel led the Browns to a respectable 6-10 record in his first year as a head coach and added a 4-12 mark in 2006. His resume includes 37 years of coaching experience, including 26 years in the NFL.

Crennel and Savage made plans for the upcoming 2007 season and were aggressive in free agency by signing several veteran players. They addressed several offensive needs by signing LG Eric Steinbach (Cincinnati), RG Seth McKinney (Miami), RB Jamal Lewis (Baltimore) and acquiring WR Tim Carter (N.Y. Giants) via trade. Defensively, they added veteran depth by signing DE Robaire Smith (Tennessee), DT Shaun Smith (Cincinnati), LB Antwan Peek (Houston) and DB Kenny Wright (Washington). With the 2007 NFL Draft, Savage and Crennel orchestrated the draft by adding seven selections, including landing three heralded selections on the first day—OT Joe Thomas (Wisconsin) with the third overall selection, and moving up to select QB Brady Quinn (Notre Dame) with the 22nd selection, and DB Eric Wright (UNLV) in the second round.

In 2006, Crennel's relationship with 15-year veteran NT Ted Washington (Oakland) and 12-year veteran LB Willie McGinest (New England) was a key component in bringing both players to Cleveland. In addition, the Browns added OL LeCharles Bentley (New Orleans), TE Darnell Dinkins (Baltimore), WR Joe Jurevicius (Seattle), OL Kevin Shaffer (Atlanta) and P Dave Zastudil (Baltimore) in free agency. With the 2006 NFL Draft, ten draft selections were added including LB Kamerion Wimbley (Florida State) with the 13th selection, LB D'Qwell Jackson (Maryland) in the second round and WR Travis Wilson (Oklahoma) in the third round.

In 2005, Crennel brought a 3-4 defensive scheme to Cleveland and witnessed his defense T-16th in defense (316.8 ypg) and ranked fourth in the NFL in pass defense (179.2 ypg). Crennel and Savage used eight draft choices to bring an infusion of youth to the roster, including first round selection WR Braylon Edwards, second round pick S Brodney Pool and third round selection QB Charlie Frye.

Prior to joining the Browns, Crennel was widely recognized as one of the top assistant coaches in the NFL. He crafted the defense for the New England Patriots and helped the Patriots win three Super Bowls (2001, 2003-04). Crennel's defense played an integral role in the Patriots' 24-21 win over the Philadelphia Eagles in Super Bowl XXXIX, as the defense forced four turnovers, put pressure on Eagles QB Donovan McNabb with four sacks and limited the Eagles running game to 45 net yards rushing.

In the 2004 postseason, New England allowed only 51 points (17 points per game) in three postseason games, including a 20-3 win over Indianapolis in an AFC Divisional Playoff game, a 41-27 win at Pittsburgh in the AFC Championship Game and the 24-21 win over Philadelphia in Super Bowl XXXIX. In New England's AFC Divisional Playoff victory over Indianapolis, the Patriots did not allow the Colts in the end zone during their 20-3 victory, marking the first time in NFL history that a team led the league in scoring during the regular season and did not score a touchdown in a playoff game.

During the 2004 regular season, the Patriots ranked ninth in the NFL in total defense (310.8 ypg), sixth in run defense (98.3 ypg) and 17th in pass defense (212.5 ypg). Crennel's defensive unit was tied for third in the NFL with 45 sacks, tied for second with 260 points allowed (16.3 ppg) on the year, allowed nine rushing TDs on the season and ranked third in the AFC in red zone defense (40.8%). The defense recorded this feat using 10 different starting lineups.

In 2003, he was recognized by the Pro Football Writers of America as the NFL's Assistant Coach of the Year. The New England defense was among the best units in NFL history, propelling the Patriots to a 15-game winning streak that culminated with a 32-29 victory over Carolina in Super Bowl XXXVIII. New England allowed a league-low and franchise-record 14.9 points per game, while also leading the league with 29 interceptions. The dominance of the defense was evident by the team's three shutouts, equaling the franchise shutout total from the previous 17 seasons combined. The Patriots defense was at its best at home, where it allowed only 9.6 points per game and surrendered just four touchdowns in the regular season. During one stretch, the Patriots did not allow a touchdown on 62 consecutive opponents' possessions at home, a streak that spanned more than five games of clock time. New England was the first team in 65 years to keep its opponent out of the end zone in four consecutive home games in a season. The Patriots defense provided some potent offense of its own, leading the NFL with six defensive touchdowns, including five interceptions returned for scores, tying a team record.

Crennel returned to the New England Patriots when he was named the defensive coordinator on Bill Belichick's staff on Feb. 1, 2001. In 2001, the defense played an integral role in propelling the Patriots to a season-ending win streak to claim the first Super Bowl title for the franchise. The 2001 Patriots surrendered just 272 points (17.0 ppg), ranking sixth in the league for fewest points allowed. In its last five regular season games, the defense surrendered just seven field goals and one touchdown. The Patriots won all five of those games and qualified for the playoffs for the first time in three years.

Crennel was reunited with Belichick in 2001 as the two coaches began coaching together as assistants on Ray Perkins' staff for the New York Giants in 1981. The 2004 season marked the 18th campaign for Crennel and Belichick together, during which time they have earned five Super Bowl titles, six conference titles and eight division titles. While with the Patriots, Crennel and Belichick have contributed to victories in Super Bowls XXXVI, XXXVIII and XXXIX, in addition to New England's AFC title in 1996.

The Patriots defense created opportunities for the offense in 2001 by recording 22 interceptions (second in the AFC, sixth in the NFL), 12 more than they had in 2000. Five of those interceptions were returned for touchdowns, setting a single-season franchise record. In the playoffs, DB Ty Law added another interception, which he returned 47 yards for a touchdown in the 20-17 victory over the St. Louis Rams in Super Bowl XXXVI.

Crennel, who was the defensive line coach for the Patriots from 1993 to 1996, spent three seasons with the New York Jets (1997-99) and a season as the defensive coordinator with the Cleveland Browns (2000). During his season in Cleveland, the Browns recorded 42 sacks, a 17-sack improvement from the 1999 season.

In his three seasons as Jets' defensive line coach, the New York defense was among the best in the NFL, never allowing more than 20 points per game for a season. In 1997, he successfully incorporated a rotation of six new defensive linemen on a unit that allowed just 287 total points (17.9 ppg), second in the AFC and sixth in the NFL. The following season, he added four new linemen to his rotation and the formula contributed to be an improvement from the year before as the defense allowed just 16.6 points per game, finishing second in the league.

His first tenure in New England was a four-year assignment as Bill Parcells' defensive line coach, beginning in 1993 and ending with an AFC Championship and Super Bowl XXXI appearance in January of 1997. In 1994, the Patriots qualified for the playoffs for the first time in eight years after winning their last seven games of the regular season. The defense allowed just 13.3 points per game during that seven-game stretch. In 1996, the Patriots defense allowed just 12.8 points per game in the final five contests of the regular season to propel the team back to the playoffs.

Crennel began his professional coaching career in 1981 as a special assignments/special teams/defensive assistant coach with the New York Giants. He became the special teams coach in 1983 and was assigned the defensive line position in 1990, a position he coached for 14 seasons. In 12 seasons in New York (1981-92), the Giants qualified for the playoffs six times, won three division titles and two Super Bowl championships. In his first season in New York, the Giants qualified for the playoffs for the first time since 1963.

His first Super Bowl championship with the Giants staff was following the 1986 season as special teams coach and a 39-20 win over Denver in Super Bowl XXI. The Giants also won Super Bowl XXV, 20-19, over Buffalo as Crennel served as defensive line coach.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at his alma mater, Western Kentucky, in 1970. He was named defensive line coach the following season in 1971. In 1975, he started a three-year tenure at Texas Tech as a defensive assistant on Parcells' defensive staff. In 1978, he was named the defensive ends coach at Mississippi. After two seasons at Ole Miss, he accepted a position at Georgia Tech in 1980, where he spent his final season in the collegiate ranks before being hired by the Giants in 1981.

Crennel was a four-year starter (1966-69) as a defensive lineman at Western Kentucky. After three seasons as one of the Hilltoppers' top tacklers, he was elected team captain as a senior. When the Western Kentucky offense struggled early in the season, Crennel willingly gave up what would have been a sure shot at all-conference honors as a defensive lineman to fill in at offensive tackle. The move helped solidify the offensive line and earned Crennel team MVP honors.

Crennel is a native of Lynchburg, Va. He was a high school standout at both Fort Knox (Ky.) High and Central High (Amherst, Va.). He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Western Kentucky, and then earned his Master's degree while serving as a graduate assistant for the school in 1970. His brother, Carl, played linebacker for the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1970 and played in the CFL from 1971-81 for five different teams. Romeo and his wife, Rosemary, have three daughters, Lisa Tulley, Tiffany Stokes and Kristin Cullinane.

DAVE ATKINS*SENIOR OFFENSIVE ASSISTANT COACH

Year with Browns: 3rd

Year in NFL: 22nd

Dave Atkins is entering his third season with the Browns as Atkins will serve the 2007 campaign as senior offensive assistant coach after serving the previous two seasons as running backs coach. In 2005, Atkins helped Reuben Droughns set a franchise record with 309 carries in a season and rush for 1,232 yards, becoming the first Browns RB to top the 1,000-yard mark since 1985.

Atkins spent the previous five seasons (2000-04) as the New Orleans Saints running backs coach and brings 21 years of NFL coaching experience to the Browns along with stops in Philadelphia, New England, Arizona, Minnesota and New Orleans.

Atkins' impact on the Saints running game from 2000-04 was evident with the Saints featuring a 1,000 yard runner in five consecutive seasons, establishing a franchise record, and erasing a ten-year void of not having a 1,000-yard rusher dating back to the 1990 season.

In 2004, Atkins worked with RB Deuce McAllister, who rushed for 1,074 yards. In 2003, McAllister was voted to the Pro Bowl for the second-consecutive season, and ranked fourth in the league with 1,641 yards rushing and also added a career-high 67 receptions.

In Atkins' first season in New Orleans (2000), the club ranked eighth in the NFL in rushing with 2,068 yards, the highest the team had ranked since finishing third in 1987. That total was achieved despite the loss of starting RB Ricky Williams in Week 11. The Saints still averaged 113.7 yards over the final six contests, with the running game serving as a key factor in capturing the NFC West title.

Prior to joining New Orleans, Atkins served as tight ends coach with Minnesota for three seasons (1997-99) and had his first stint with New Orleans as running backs coach in 1996. Atkins also brings NFL offensive coordinator experience to the coaching staff, having served in that capacity in Arizona from 1994-95. In 1994, the Cardinals led the NFL in time of possession (32:37), and the next season Arizona had one of the league's best backfield duos in FB Larry Centers and RB Garrison Hearst.

In 1993, Atkins joined New England as running backs coach. In his only season with the Patriots, New England averaged 111.3 rushing yards per contest, including a 1,088-yard effort by Leonard Russell, who finished second among AFC running backs. Atkins broke into the NFL ranks with the Philadelphia Eagles in 1986. He worked with numerous facets of the Eagles' coaching staff during his seven-year stay, including running backs (1986-90), special teams (1991), and tight ends (1992).

After playing three years of pro football, Atkins started his college coaching career at his alma mater, the University of Texas-El Paso, in 1979. He worked with the running backs and with the kicking game for two seasons at UTEP before joining the staff at San Diego State in 1981, where he spent the next five years.

Born May 18, 1949, in Victoria, Texas, Atkins and his wife, Cynthia, have a son, Dave Jr., and a daughter, Jasmine.

ROB CHUDZINSKI

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Year with Browns: 2nd (1st as offensive coordinator)

Year in NFL: 4th

Rob Chudzinski was named Browns offensive coordinator on Jan. 20, 2007. Chudzinski brings 13 years of coaching experience, including three years in the NFL and ten years in the collegiate ranks. Chudzinski joins the Browns after serving as the San Diego Chargers tight ends coach the last two seasons.

Chudzinski will lead an offensive unit that witnessed a major commitment this offseason as the Browns added LG Eric Steinbach, RG Seth McKinney, RB Jamal Lewis in free agency and added first-round selections LT Joe Thomas and QB Brady Quinn in the NFL Draft.

Chudzinski previously served as Browns tight ends coach during the 2004 season under Head Coach Butch Davis, and also served as offensive coordinator that season for the final five games under Interim Head Coach Terry Robiskie.

Chudzinski served as the San Diego Chargers tight ends coach from 2005-06 and worked with Chargers tight end Antonio Gates, who was voted to the Pro Bowl in each of the last two seasons. In 2006, Gates led the Chargers in all receiving categories including 71 receptions for 924 yards (13.0 avg.) and nine receiving touchdowns.

During the 2005 campaign, Gates set career-highs with 89 catches for 1,101 yards and 10 touchdowns. His 89 receptions tied Hall of Famer Kellen Winslow's team record for single receptions by a tight end and his 1,101 yards were the most in Chargers history since 1983 when Winslow racked up 1,172. Gates 10 touchdown catches matched his 2004 total and he became the first NFL tight end with 10 or more touchdown catches in consecutive seasons.

A native of Toledo, Chudzinski returned to his Northeast Ohio roots in 2004 as the Browns tight ends coach under Head Coach Butch Davis. Chudzinski worked with Browns first round draft choice, Kellen Winslow II, who he previously coached at the University of Miami. During that season Chudzinski was elevated to offensive coordinator for the final five games under Interim Head Coach Terry Robiskie after the resignation of Head Coach Butch Davis.

Chudzinski worked extensively with Kellen Winslow II at the University of Miami as the Hurricanes offensive coordinator (2001-03). In 2003, Winslow II won the John Mackey Award as the nation's top collegiate tight end before becoming the Browns first-round selection, sixth overall, in the 2004 NFL Draft.

During his three seasons as offensive coordinator at the University of Miami, the Hurricanes played in three Bowl Championship Series games, including two National Championship games. He coached notable future NFL players Andre Johnson, Clinton Portis, Bryant McKinnie, Willis McGahee, Frank Gore and Ken Dorsey. In 2001, the 'Canes went 12-0 and defeated Nebraska to win the National Championship. In 2002, Miami's offense set school records for points (527), total yards (6,074) and rushing touchdowns (33) and averaged 40.5 points per game, while averaging 284.2 yards per game passing and 183.0 yards per game rushing. The 'Canes went 12-1 in 2002, their only defeat coming in overtime against Ohio State in the National Championship game. In 2003, Miami averaged 27.8 points per game and finished with an 11-2 record, including a 16-14 victory over Florida State in the FedEx Orange Bowl.

Chudzinski spent a total of ten years as an assistant at Miami, including five years as tight ends coach (1996-2000) and two as a graduate assistant coach (1994-95). He also helped develop two other All-America tight ends, Bubba Franks in 1999 and Jeremy Shockey in 2001. Franks and Shockey both became first-round picks and Pro Bowlers with Green Bay and the New York Giants, respectively.

Chudzinski joined the Hurricanes staff as a graduate assistant in 1994. He played tight end at Miami from 1986-90, was a three year starter and a member of two national championship teams (1987 and 1989). He graduated with a B.A. in business administration in 1990 and later earned a MBA in 1996.

Chudzinski was born on May 12, 1968, and grew up in Toledo, Ohio, where he starred at Toledo St. John's High School. He is married to the former Sheila Danker and the couple has a son, Kaelan (1).

TODD GRANTHAM

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR

Year with Browns: 3rd

Year in NFL: 9th

Todd Grantham is entering his third season as defensive coordinator. The fiery Grantham will lead a defensive unit that witnessed a major commitment as the Browns added veterans DE Robaire Smith, NT Shaun Smith, and LB Antwan Peek in free agency and second-round draft choice Eric Wright out of UNLV in the 2007 NFL Draft.

Combined with an influx of youth from the 2006 NFL Draft with a trio of young linebackers—first round pick Kamerion Wimbley, second-round choice D'Qwell Jackson and fourth-round selection Leon Williams, and returning veterans LB Andra Davis, LB Willie McGinest, NT Ted Washington and DE Orpheus Roye, Grantham will look for major strides in year three of the 3-4 defensive scheme.

In 2006, Grantham's defensive unit ranked 15th in the NFL in pass defense (202.6 ypg), despite his secondary being decimated with injuries (DB Daylon McCutcheon, DB Gary Baxter and DB Leigh Bodden). His secondary witnessed the emergence of S Sean Jones and DB Daven Holly, who tied for the team lead with five interceptions each.

In his first season with the Browns in 2005, Grantham led a defensive unit that converted to a new 3-4 defensive scheme and finished first in the AFC in red zone defense (44% TD percentage), fourth in the NFL in pass defense (179.2 ypg), 11th in points allowed (17.7 ppg) and T-16th in total defense (316.8 ypg).

Grantham came to the Browns with six years of NFL coaching experience with Houston (2002-04) and Indianapolis (1999-01) as a defensive line coach and also brings nine additional years of coaching experience from the collegiate level.

Prior to joining the Browns, Grantham served as the defensive line coach for the Houston Texans. In 2004, Grantham's line worked in a 3-4 defensive scheme and the Texans defense ranked 13th in the NFL against the run and had a streak of seven consecutive games without allowing a rushing TD (10/10/04 - 11/28/04).

In 2003, Grantham's defensive line unit was devastated by injuries, as NT Seth Payne suffered a season ending knee injury in week two and Pro Bowl DE Gary Walker played in just four games due to shoulder and toe injuries. Despite the injuries, Grantham was able to mix and match his defensive linemen effectively as DT Jerry Deloach collected a career-high 109 tackles and NT Steve Martin racked up 92 stops in only 14 games. In 2002, Grantham's three starters (Gary Walker, Seth Payne, Jerry Deloach) all produced career-high numbers in tackles and Walker earned his second Pro Bowl invitation after racking up 115 tackles and 6.5 sacks.

Grantham arrived in Houston in 2002 after spending the previous three seasons in the same capacity for the Indianapolis Colts. Grantham's charges registered 96 sacks over three seasons, helping the Colts post a 29-19 record and advance to the playoffs twice. Indianapolis' 10-win improvement from 1998 to 1999 marked the greatest one-season turnaround in league history. In 1999 and 2000, the Colts posted 56 sacks, the highest two-year total for the club since it moved to Indianapolis.

Prior to his stint in Indianapolis, Grantham served three seasons as the defensive line coach at Michigan State (1996-98). He added the title of assistant head coach in his final season in East Lansing in 1998. Michigan State ranked 19th in total defense in 1996 and 13th in 1997, making consecutive bowl trips.

Grantham also spent six seasons (1990-95) at his alma mater, Virginia Tech, the final two as defensive line coach. In 1995, the Hokies ranked first nationally in rushing defense, fifth in scoring defense and 10th in total defense. Virginia Tech racked up 50 sacks en route to the Big East title and a Sugar Bowl triumph over Texas in 1995. Grantham coached defensive ends and inside linebackers from 1990-91 and defensive tackles from 1992-93.

Grantham played guard and tackle for the Hokies from 1984-88. He earned second-team All-South and honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. Grantham earned a bachelor's degree in sports management. Grantham was born Sept. 13, 1966, in Pulaski, Va., Grantham and his wife, Paige, have a son, Corbin, and a daughter, Olivia.

Year in NFL: 8th

Anthony Lynn was named the Cleveland Browns running backs coach on Jan. 27, 2007. Lynn comes to Cleveland after serving the last two seasons as the running backs coach with the Dallas Cowboys. Lynn brings seven years of coaching experience with Denver, Jacksonville and Dallas, and also played seven seasons in the NFL with Denver and San Francisco.

Last season with the Cowboys, Lynn helped Dallas rank sixth in the NFC in rushing with an average of 121.0 yards per game. Lynn guided young running backs Julius Jones, as he ranked tenth in the NFC with 1,084 yards rushing on 267 carries (4.1 avg.) and four touchdowns and also Marion Barber added 654 yards on 135 carries (4.8 avg.) and ranked third in the NFL with 14 rushing touchdowns.

In his first season in Dallas, Lynn oversaw the continued emergence of Julius Jones, who rushed for 993 yards—including a single-game career-high 194 yards at Carolina on Dec. 24, 2005—in his second professional season despite missing three games with a high ankle sprain. In his place, rookie Marion Barber emerged as a solid ground threat with 538 yards, which ranked fifth in the NFL among rookies and a team-high tying five touchdowns.

Lynn served two seasons (2003-04) as the Jacksonville Jaguars running backs coach. Under his guidance, Fred Taylor recorded two of the top four single-season rushing performances in Jaguars history. After rushing for a team record 1,572 yards in 2003, Taylor accumulated 1,224 yards (4.7 avg.) in 2004, despite missing three games with a knee injury. He also caught 84 passes during that two-year span. In 2003, Lynn's three backs each averaged more than four yards-per-carry.

Prior to joining the Jaguars, Lynn spent three seasons (2000-02) with the Denver Broncos as an offensive assistant and special teams coach. The Broncos kickoff coverage units were some of the best in the AFC during Lynn's time with the team—finishing first in the conference in opponents' average drive start in 2000 (26.1), third in 2001 (26.8) and third in 2002 (27.8).

Lynn joined the Denver coaching staff in August of 2000 after his playing career was cut short because of repeated occurrences of neck stingers. Prior to his move to the coaching ranks, he spent three seasons (1997-99) with the Broncos as an H-back/special teams standout and helped Denver claim back-to-back Super Bowl championships following the 1997 and 1998 seasons. He spent the 1995-96 seasons with the San Francisco 49ers. Lynn went to his first NFL training camp in 1992 with the N.Y. Giants, but was released prior to the start of the season. He made the 1993 Broncos roster and saw action in 13 games, mostly on special teams. Lynn suffered a broken leg prior to the 1994 season and spent the year on the Broncos Injured Reserve list.

Lynn was a standout running back for Texas Tech University, accumulating 1,911 yards and 17 touchdowns on 481 carries during his collegiate career. As a junior, he earned All-Southwest Conference honors after rushing for 884 yards and eight scores on 224 carries. He was then slowed as a senior by a knee injury.

BROWNS

Riddell

HISTORY

2007 SEASON

Earnest Byner—2006 inductee to the Cleveland Browns Legends.

HOW THE BROWNS WERE NAMED

Just how did the Cleveland Browns get their name?

One myth is that the team was named after the popular boxing champion, Joe Louis, "The Brown Bomber." The truth, according to several published reports, is this:

When owner Arthur McBride brought an AAFC team to Cleveland in 1945, he held a newspaper contest to name the team and offered a $1,000 war bond to the winner. Most of the entries submitted wanted the name Browns, because the extremely popular Paul Brown was the team's head coach.

Coach Brown thought it wouldn't be proper to name the team after him, and the entry "Panthers" was selected. A few weeks later, a man approached McBride and said he owned a semi-pro team in the 1920s called the Cleveland Panthers and he still owned the rights to the name.

McBride could have bought the man off, but Brown vetoed the idea. The coach didn't want the new team to be associated with a losing franchise. Instead of holding a new contest, Brown reluctantly agreed to name the team Browns. But, in sticking with his original ideals, Brown suggested publicly that since Louis was "The Brown Bomber", that was how the team got its name. Not a single entry in the contest listed Louis or his nickname as a reason for choosing "Browns."

The Cleveland Browns were originated by Owner Arthur (Mickey) McBride as a member of the All-America Football Conference. Paul Brown was named coach and general manager, and the first player he signed was then-tailback Otto Graham, who was converted to quarterback with the Browns. The Browns won the Western Division title with a 42-17 victory over the Buffalo Bisons and then defeated the New York Yankees, 14-9, in the championship game.

1947-49

The Browns continued their domination of the AAFC, winning three more championships.

1950

Following the merger of the AAFC and the NFL, the Browns tied the New York Giants with 10-2 records for a share of the Eastern Division title. The Browns defeated the New York Giants, 8-3, in a playoff game and then stopped the Los Angeles Rams, 30-28, for the championship.

1951-53

The Browns won three consecutive Eastern titles, but lost each time in the league's title match, once to the Los Angeles Rams and twice to the Detroit Lions. In 1953, McBride sold the club to an organization headed by David Jones.

1954-55

Led by quarterback Otto Graham, the Browns won back-to-back NFL championships, defeating the Detroit Lions and Los Angeles Rams.

1956

At 5-7, the Browns suffered their first losing season.

1957

Jim Brown was selected in the first round by the Browns and earned rookie-of-the-year honors while helping Cleveland to the Eastern Division title.

1961

Art Modell purchased the Browns for the then unheard sum of $4 million.

1963

Paul Brown was released from his duties after 17 seasons as head coach of the franchise. Blanton Collier, a Browns' assistant, was named head coach.

1964

The Browns won the Eastern Conference title with a 52-20 victory over the New York Giants and defeated the Baltimore Colts, 27-0, in the NFL Championship Game.

1965

In his last season, Jim Brown won NFL MVP honors and led Cleveland to the NFL Championship Game, where the Browns were defeated by the Green Bay Packers.

1966

An eighth round pick in 1964, Leroy Kelly became the club's dominant threat, rushing for 1,141 yards, but the Browns finished second in the Eastern Conference to the Dallas Cowboys.

1968

With newly acquired quarterback Bill Nelsen (from the Pittsburgh Steelers), the Browns won the Century Division title and beat the Dallas Cowboys in the playoffs, but lost to the Baltimore Colts in the NFL Championship Game.

1969

The Browns won the Century Division title for the third straight year, but lost to the Minnesota Vikings in the NFL Championship Game.

1970

The Browns became members of the AFC Central Division and finished second. The Browns beat the New York Jets, 31-21, on Monday Night Football's first-ever telecast.

1971

Nick Skorich, a Browns' assistant, was named head coach. The club won its first AFC Central crown.

1972

The Browns lost to the eventual Super Bowl Champion

Miami Dolphins in the playoffs, 20-14, as the Dolphins completed an undefeated season.

1975-77

Forrest Gregg became head coach in 1975. Greg Pruitt had three consecutive 1,000-yard rushing seasons and Dick Modzelewski coached the final game of 1977.

1978

Sam Rutigliano became the first non-Browns' assistant to be named head coach of the Browns. Cleveland won its first three contests en route to an 8-8 finish.

1979

Losses in the final two games dropped the Browns' record to 9-7 and prevented the team from entering the playoffs. Mike Pruitt had the first of three straight 1,000-yard seasons.

1980

The Browns won the AFC Central Division title with an 11-5 record, but lost to the eventual Super Bowl champion Oakland Raiders in the playoffs. Quarterback Brian Sipe was consensus MVP of the NFL.

1982

In a strike-shortened season, the Browns finished eighth in the AFC (4-5) and gained a playoff spot for the second time in three years. Cleveland lost to the Los Angeles Raiders in the Super Bowl Tournament.

1983

The Browns tied for a Wild Card playoff spot with a 9-7 record, but lost the NFL tie-breaking procedure to the Denver Broncos and Seattle Seahawks.

1984

The Browns replaced Head Coach Sam Rutigliano with Defensive Coordinator Marty Schottenheimer after a 1-7 midseason record and finished the season at 5-11. Tight end Ozzie Newsome caught 89 passes for the second straight year.

1985

The Browns captured their third AFC Central Division title, but lost to the Miami Dolphins in the playoffs, 24-21, at Miami. Rookie Kevin Mack (1,104) and Earnest Byner (1,002) each gained 1,000 yards rushing. It marked the third time in the 66-year history of the NFL that teammates both rushed for over 1,000 yards in the same season.

1986

The Browns posted a team-record 12 wins en route to their second consecutive AFC Central Division crown. In a double-overtime playoff thriller before a packed Cleveland Municipal Stadium crowd, the Browns beat the New York Jets, 23-20, to advance to the AFC Championship game. The Browns lost to the Denver Broncos, also in overtime, 23-20.

1987

The Browns captured their third straight AFC Central Division crown, as they finished the season 10-5. The third week of the NFL season was cancelled due to a 24-day players' strike, during which three "replacement" games were played (the Browns posted a 2-1 record). The Browns defeated the Indianapolis Colts, 38-21, at Cleveland Municipal Stadium in the AFC playoffs, then dropped their second straight AFC Championship to the Denver Broncos despite a spectacular come-from-behind bid that saw the Browns score 30 second-half points, only to fall, 38-33, at Mile High Stadium. Bernie Kosar won the AFC passing title with a 95.4 QB rating, and an NFL-high eight Browns made the Pro Bowl.

Cleveland finished 10-6 and earned a Wild Card berth by defeating the Houston Oilers, 28-23, in the season finale by overcoming a 16-point third-quarter deficit. Houston defeated the Browns, 24-23, in the Wild Card Game played on Christmas Eve. Four Cleveland quarterbacks suffered injuries during the course of the season. Marty Schottenheimer resigned on Dec. 27.

1989

Bud Carson was announced as the Browns' seventh full-time head coach on Jan. 27. The Browns won their fourth division title in five years with a 9-6-1 record, and advanced to the playoffs for an AFC-high fifth-straight season. The Browns advanced to their third title game in four years by defeating the Buffalo Bills, 34-30, but lost to the Denver Broncos, 37-21, at Mile High Stadium in the AFC Championship Game.

1990

The Browns suffered through a 3-13 season. Jim Shofner replaced Bud Carson as interim head coach on Nov. 5.

1991-93

Bill Belichick was named the eighth full-time head coach on Feb. 5, 1991. The Browns moved into a new training and administrative complex located in Berea, Ohio, in August 1991 and began holding training camp there in July 1992. The Browns finished 6-10, 7-9 and 7-9, respectively. Unrestricted free agency began in 1993. The Browns signed five players in the first year of this system, including quarterback Vinny Testaverde of Tampa Bay.

1994

The Browns earned a playoff berth for the first time in the '90s, finishing 11-5 and defeating the New England Patriots, 20-13, in the Wild Card Game at sold-out Cleveland Municipal Stadium. The Browns faced the Pittsburgh Steelers for the first time ever in the playoffs, and lost, 29-9, at Three Rivers Stadium. The Cleveland defense set a team record by allowing just 204 points, and six players went to the Pro Bowl.

1995

The Browns concluded the season with a 5-11 record. On November 6, owner Art Modell announced he was relocating the team to Baltimore, Md. The final game played at Cleveland Municipal Stadium was on Dec. 17 against the Cincinnati Bengals. The Browns defeated the Bengals, 26-10. The victory marked an all-time NFL record of 202-117-5 (.631) while playing at Cleveland Municipal Stadium.

1996

The City of Cleveland and the NFL secured an unprecedented deal to return the Cleveland Browns to the playing field in 1999. The deal stipulated that the name, colors and heritage of the Browns would remain in Cleveland.

1998

The NFL awarded the Cleveland Browns to Alfred Lerner on Sept. 8. The NFL formally transferred ownership of the Cleveland Browns to Lerner and Carmen A. Policy on Oct. 23. Dwight Clark was named vice president, director of football operations on Nov. 30.

1999

Chris Palmer was named the ninth full-time head coach in Cleveland Browns history Jan. 21. The Browns were awarded the rights to the first pick in the 1999 NFL Draft and used the pick to select Kentucky quarterback Tim Couch. The first game at new Cleveland Browns Stadium was played on Aug. 21 against the Minnesota Vikings, with the Vikings prevailing, 24-17 in a pre-season contest. In the first regular season game in the Browns' 1999 commemorative season and the first regular season game at Cleveland Browns Stadium, the Browns lost to the Pittsburgh Steelers, 43-0. The Browns recorded their first victory of the '99 season on Oct. 31 with a last-second Hail Mary pass from Couch to Kevin Johnson.

2000

The Browns selected Penn State defensive end Courtney Brown with the first pick in the 2000 NFL Draft. The Browns notched their first regular season victory at Cleveland Browns Stadium on Sept. 17 with a 23-20 win over the Pittsburgh Steelers.

2001

The Browns fired Head Coach Chris Palmer on Jan. 11. The Browns hired Butch Davis as the franchise's 10th full-time head coach on Jan. 30.

2002

Dwight Clark resigned his post as the team's executive vice president, director of football operations on May 13. Owner Alfred Lerner passed away on Oct. 23. The Browns finished the season by winning seven of their last 10 contests to earn the club's first postseason berth since 1994 with a 9-7 record. The Browns were defeated in the AFC Wild Card Game at Pittsburgh, 36-33.

2003

The Browns finished with a 5-11 record as the season was highlighted by a 33-13 win at Pittsburgh on Oct. 5 in front of a nationally televised audience on ESPN Sunday Night Football.

2004

John Collins assumed the role of President & CEO on May 1. Rookie TE Kellen Winslow was lost for the season with an ankle injury after week two and the Browns went on to finish with a 4-12 record. Head coach Butch Davis resigned after a 3-8 start and interim head coach Terry Robiskie coached the team over the final five weeks, including a 22-14 season-ending victory at Houston.

2005

Phil Savage was named Senior Vice President & General Manager on Jan. 7 and Romeo Crennel was named head coach on Feb. 8.

2006

President and CEO, John Collins, announced his resignation on Jan. 3.

RETIRED UNIFORM NUMBERS#14 OTTO GRAHAM

From 1946-1955, Otto Graham guided the Browns to 10 league crowns and NFL Championships in 1950, 1954 and 1955. He led the NFL in passing for two seasons and recorded 23,584 career passing yards. In 1953, Graham finished the season with a 64.73 completion percentage, the highest in club history. He was an All-League selection from 1951-55. Graham was inducted in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1965.

#32 JIM BROWN

Brown was the NFL's leading rusher in eight seasons and holds the Browns franchise record for career rushing yards, attempts and touchdowns. An All-America selection from Syracuse in 1956, Brown was named NFL Rookie of the Year in 1957. He participated in nine consecutive Pro Bowls from 1958-66 and was voted NFL most valuable player in 1958 and 1965. Brown was inducted in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1971.

#45 ERNIE DAVIS

After being selected first in the 1961 NFL draft, the Browns acquired Ernie Davis in a trade with the Washington Redskins. Tragically, Davis passed away two years later from leukemia and never played a professional game. A star running back from Syracuse, Davis was the first African-American to win the Heisman Trophy in 1961 and guided the Orangemen to their only national championship the same year.

#46 DON FLEMING

Don Fleming was selected by the Chicago Cardinals in the 28th round of the 1959 NFL draft. He was traded to the Browns in 1960 and was a mainstay at the safety position. From 1960-63, Fleming intercepted 10 passes and was named to The Sporting News All-AFC team in 1962. During the 1963 offseason, Fleming and a co-worker were sadly electrocuted working a construction job. His passing came a few weeks after Ernie Davis' death.

#76 LOU GROZA

Lou Groza is Cleveland's top scorer with 1,349 points on 234 FGs, 641 PATs and one TD. He scored at least one point in 107 consecutive games and his last-second field goal sealed the 1950 NFL Championship for the Browns. Originally an offensive left tackle, Groza suffered a back injury which converted him into a kicking specialist from 1961-67. He was an All-NFL tackle on six occasions and was the NFL Player of the Year in 1954. Groza was inducted in the Pro Football Hall of Fame in 1974.

Eagles K David Akers made a 50-yard field goal with 5:02 left in overtime.

Dec. 3, 2006—Cleveland 31, Kansas City 28, at Cleveland; Kansas City won toss. The Browns scored two touchdowns in the final nine minutes of regulation to bring the game into overtime. NFL DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CLEVELAND 8, NEW YORK GIANTS 3—Lou Groza's 28-yard field goal with 58 seconds left gave the Browns the victory after they had lost to the Giants in both regular-season meetings. The offenses were thwarted by 10-degree weather and a numbing wind. The Giants had a chance for a touchdown, but after a bizarre series of plays inside the Browns' 10, they had to accept a tying field goal. Then Otto Graham used the quarterback draw to move Cleveland down the field to Groza's winning kick. Moments later, the Browns added a safety. Graham ran for 70 yards on 8 carries.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

CLEVELAND 30, LOS ANGELES 28—Lou Groza kicked a 16-yard field goal with 28 seconds remaining to give the Browns the NFL title in their inaugural season. Cleveland, which had appeared in the AAFC championship game all four years of that league's existence, joined the NFL in 1950. The Browns trailed 28-20 in the fourth quarter when Otto Graham led them on a 65-yard drive, capped by his 14-yard scoring pass to Rex Bumgardner with 4:35 left. After a Rams' punt, the Browns took over at their 32 with two minutes left. Graham led a 57-yard drive to set up Groza's winning kick. Graham passed for 298 yards and 4 touchdowns, including 11 completions for 128 yards and 2 scores to Dante Lavelli. Bob Waterfield of the Rams passed for 312 yards. The Rams' Tom Fears had 9 catches for 136 yards.

LOS ANGELES 24, CLEVELAND 17—Norm Van Brocklin's 73-yard scoring pass to Tom Fears lifted the Rams to their second NFL title. The Rams took a 14-10 lead in the third quarter on Dan Towler's 1-yard run, which was set up by Andy Robustelli's fumble return to the Browns' 2. A field goal made it 17-10, but the Browns tied the game midway through the fourth quarter on Ken Carpenter's 5-yard touchdown run. After the ensuing kickoff, Van Brocklin, facing a third and 3 from his 27, found Fears near midfield. Fears caught the pass between two Browns defenders, who collided, which left Fears with an easy gallop to the end zone.

NFL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

DETROIT 59, CLEVELAND 14—The Lions had a new coach and a new quarterback, but they still won their third title in six seasons. Coach Raymond (Buddy) Parker had quit before the season, but the Lions did not miss a beat under George Wilson. One of Wilson's first moves was to acquire quarterback Tobin Rote, who replaced an injured Bobby Layne late in the season. In this game, Rote passed for 280 yards and 4 touchdowns to lead the rout. After the Browns cut the Lions' lead to 17-7, Rote, on a fake field goal, fired a 26-yard scoring pass to Steve Junker. The Browns later closed to 31-14, but Rote answered again, this time with a 78-yard scoring strike to Jim Doran. Junker had 5 catches for 109 yards.

OAKLAND 14, CLEVELAND 12—Safety Mike Davis' end-zone interception with 41 seconds remaining saved the Raiders' victory over the Browns. Playing in one-degree weather, Oakland drove 64 and 80 yards for its touchdowns, both coming on 1-yard runs by Mark van Eeghen. The latter score came with 9:22 remaining. The conditions and Raiders' defense combined to limit Brian Sipe to a 13-of-40 day, although he did drive the Browns 73 yards in the final minutes before throwing the fateful interception.

AFC CHAMPIONSHIP GAME

DENVER 38, CLEVELAND 33—Jeremiah Castille's fumble recovery at the 3-yard line with 1:05 to play preserved the Broncos' victory over the Browns. Denver built leads of 21-3 and 28-10 before Cleveland stormed back behind quarterback Bernie Kosar to tie the game at 31-31. The Broncos answered with a 75-yard drive, capped by John Elway's 20-yard scoring pass to Sammy Winder, to take a 38-31 lead with 4:01 left. The Browns took the ensuing kickoff and drove 67 yards to the Broncos' 8, where Earnest Byner took a handoff and had a clear path to the tying score. But Castille stripped the ball from Byner, then recovered it at the 3-yard line to dash the Browns' hopes. Kosar completed 26 of 41 passes for 356 yards and 3 touchdowns, while Elway passed for 281 yards and 3 touchdowns.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

CLEVELAND 34, BUFFALO 30—Clay Matthews' interception at the 1-yard line with 3 seconds to play preserved the Browns' win over the Bills. Buffalo quarterback Jim Kelly passed for 405 yards and 4 touchdowns, while his Cleveland counterpart, Bernie Kosar, had 3 scoring strikes. After the Bills pulled within 24-21 in the third quarter, Browns rookie Eric Metcalf returned the ensuing kickoff 90 yards for a touchdown and a 31-21 lead. The teams traded field goals, and then Kelly's fourth scoring pass made it 34-30. But the Bills missed the extra point, a mistake that proved crucial on their final drive when they had to try for the end zone instead of kicking a potential tying field goal.

AFC WILD CARD

CLEVELAND 20, NEW ENGLAND 13—Vinny Testaverde threw for 268 yards and 1 touchdown and the Browns survived a late scare to beat the Patriots. After Matt Stover's 21-yard field goal with 3:36 remaining gave Cleveland a 20-10 advantage, the Patriots marched from their own 22-yard line to the Browns' 15. The drive stalled there, and Matt Bahr trimmed New England's deficit to seven points with a 33-yard field goal at the 1:30 mark. The Patriots recovered the ensuing onside kick and picked up a first down before four consecutive incompletions from their 48-yard line ended their comeback hopes. Testaverde completed 20 of 30 passes for the Browns, including a 5-yard touchdown to Mark Carrier in the second quarter. Michael Jackson caught 7 passes for 122 yards. Drew Bledsoe completed only 21 of 50 passes for 235 yards for New England and was intercepted 3 times.

AFC DIVISIONAL PLAYOFF

PITTSBURGH 29, CLEVELAND 9—The Steelers scored on their first three possessions to open a 17-0 lead and went on to defeat the Browns for the third time this season. Pittsburgh dominated the first playoff meeting ever between these long-time rivals (they've played each other twice a year in the regular season since 1950), rushing for 238 yards while amassing 424 total yards and maintaining possession for 42:37 of the game's 60 minutes. Barry Foster ran for 133 yards on 24 carries, and rookie Byron (Bam) Morris added 60 yards on 22 attempts. Neil O'Donnell was efficient, completing 8 of his first 9 passes and finishing with 16 completions in 23 attempts for 186 yards. He threw a 2-yard touchdown pass to tight end Eric Green early in the second quarter and put the game out of reach with a 9-yard touchdown pass to Yancey Thigpen for a 24-3 lead just 16 seconds before halftime. That touchdown was set up by Tim McKyer's interception and 21-yard return to Cleveland's 6-yard line. It was 1 of 2 interceptions (safety Darren Perry had the other) of Vinny Testaverde, who was 13 of 31 for 144 yards. Testaverde received little help from Cleveland's running game, which managed only 55 yards. Ernie Mills caught 5 passes for 117 yards for the Steelers.

AFC WILD CARD

PITTSBURGH 36, CLEVELAND 33—The NFL's comeback player of the year, Tommy Maddox, led the Steelers to 29 points in the final 19 minutes to overcome a 17-point deficit. On the game's third play, Kelly Holcomb, starting in place of the injured Tim Couch, connected on an 83-yard pass to Kevin Johnson to set up William Green's 1-yard run. A muffed punt by Antwaan Randle El early in the second quarter was followed on the next play by Holcomb's 32-yard touchdown pass to Dennis Northcutt. Randle El redeemed himself five minutes later with a 66-yard punt return for a touchdown. The Browns led 17-7 at halftime, and when Northcutt returned a punt 59 yards and three plays later caught a 15-yard touchdown pass, the Browns had a 17-point lead with 12:11 left in the third quarter. Maddox engineered touchdown drives of 71 and 65 yards, sandwiched around a Browns' field goal, but Holcomb's 22-yard touchdown pass to Andre' Davis with 10:17 left gave Cleveland a 33-21 lead. Two possessions later, the Steelers drove 77 yards, with the benefit of three Browns defensive penalties, and cut the deficit to 33-28 on Maddox's 5-yard scoring pass to Hines Ward with 3:06 left. Faced with third-and-12 on the ensuing possession, Northcutt dropped Holcomb's pass for what would have been a first down, and the Browns punted. Needing 61 yards with 2:35 remaining, Maddox completed 2 passes each to Plaxico Burress and Ward, and Chris Fuamatu-Ma'afala scored from 3 yards out with 54 seconds left. The Browns reached the Steelers' 45 with seven seconds left, but Andre King could not get out of bounds on a 16-yard reception as time expired, thus denying Cleveland a game-tying field-goal opportunity. Maddox was 30 of 48 for 367 yards and 3 touchdowns, with 2 interceptions. Ward had 11 catches for 104 yards, and Burress added 6 receptions for 100 yards. Holcomb was 26 of 43 for 429 yards and 3 touchdowns, with 1 interception. Johnson had 4 catches for 140 yards.

BROWNS

EXTRA POINTS

Doug Dieken—2006 inductee to the Cleveland Browns Legends.

Cleveland Browns Stadium is home not only to a storied football franchise but also to a dedicated, ardent, passionate group of people—the only group that can lay claim to the title of “World’s Greatest Fans.” At Cleveland Browns Stadium, fans take pride in supporting their team in a safe, enthusiastic and family-oriented atmosphere. This special combination of sportsmanship and exhilaration makes Sunday afternoons with the Browns a memorable and momentous experience.

Cleveland Browns Stadium was built on the hallowed ground of the old Municipal Stadium. There’s no better place than on the lakefront for the home of the Cleveland Browns than where legendary coach Paul Brown established Cleveland’s first football dynasty in the 1940s. No other site could have been as appropriate as the location where 16 Cleveland Browns—Jim Brown, Paul Brown, Joe DeLamielleure, Len Ford, Frank Gatski, Otto Graham, Lou Groza, Gene Hickerson, Leroy Kelly, Dante Lavelli, Mike McCormack, Bobby Mitchell, Marion Motley, Ozzie Newsome, Paul Warfield and Bill Willis—established their credentials for induction into the Professional Football Hall of Fame in nearby Canton.

While the location of the Stadium honors the glorious history of athletic achievements in Cleveland, Cleveland Browns Stadium is a celebration of the city’s renaissance, drawing people to the lakefront every day. The crown jewel of the Northcoast Harbor, Cleveland Browns Stadium is located next to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame and Great Lakes Science Center. When visiting the Stadium, it is impossible to miss the distinctive architectural design of the columns, beams and notches in the seating bowl. These spacious gaps allow visitors to get an inside perspective of the Stadium and field when the Browns are away and allow ticket holders to see the downtown skyline during the game. While on the south side of the Stadium, Browns fans can catch a game and a bite to eat at The Gridiron Grille, wander through the Hall of Fame and reminisce about previous Browns players, and grab a personalized Browns jersey at the Team Shop.

At night, Cleveland Browns Stadium lights up the lakefront. Beams and columns are highlighted by a halo of light that can be seen from downtown and the Northcoast Harbor. Day or night, whether the team is playing home or away, Cleveland Browns Stadium brings a new excitement to Cleveland.

The Cleveland Browns Training and Administrative Complex is located in Berea, Ohio, on 13 acres of land. The building, which originally opened in August 1991, was renovated in the spring of 1999 and currently undergoing further renovations and expansion. Recent renovations include an expanded weight room (7,500 sq. ft.), a new players' lounge, a complete lobby restoration and 120 new theater seats in the team meeting room. A sparkling new 14,000 sq. ft. addition to the administration building opened December 2, 2002, and features the Dino Lucarelli Media Center, which includes a media work room, press conference room, interview rooms and media flex space. The expansion also included 14 new offices for coaches and football administration, storage and a new shipping/receiving area.

Existing features in the state-of-the-art facility include a field house of 60,000 sq. ft. with a 70-yard field, a 3,100 sq. ft. athletic training room, a 1,280 sq. ft. team meeting room, individual meeting rooms for position meetings, a 2,700 sq. ft. players' locker room with room for more than 90 lockers and a restaurant-style kitchen for meal preparation. The complex also hosts three regulation-size natural grass practice fields ideal for year-round football operations, including the team's training camps.

THE DINO LUCARELLI MEDIA CENTER

The Dino Lucarelli Media Center, which opened in December of 2002 at the Browns Training and Administrative Complex in Berea, features an expansive media work room, two radio/television interview rooms, a kitchen and private locker space for media members.

Lucarelli, 72, has been working with Cleveland media for nearly 50 years and has been affiliated with the Cleveland Browns organization since 1975 with responsibilities in player relations and media services. He currently serves as the club's Manager of Alumni Relations and is a panelist on the Cleveland Browns Legends Club committee. Lucarelli called the naming of the media center "one of the biggest thrills of my life."

The Cleveland Chapter of the Professional Football Writers Association (PFWA) has named its "Good Guy Award" for Lucarelli. The Good Guy Award is given annually for cooperation with the media and for the way a player carries himself in the community and with his teammates. The National Football Foundation (Northeast Ohio Chapter) Lifetime Achievement Award is also named for Lucarelli.

The Cleveland Browns continue their pursuit to bring a championship to Cleveland and look forward to leaving a positive impact in the community during the process. The team's players, coaches, executives and staff members donate a significant amount of time and funding to support charitable causes, non-profit organizations, schools, hospitals and civic groups. In addition, core programs and projects have been developed and are underway to reach out to those in need.

The Browns engage the community through the Cleveland Browns Foundation and programming focused on children through the areas of Education, Health & Wellness, Neighborhood Enhancement & Youth Football. These focus areas represent our team's commitment to the community, and the Browns strive to strengthen the mind, body and heart of Greater Cleveland's children, families and neighbors through our spirit and tradition.

Founded in 1999, the Cleveland Browns Foundation was created to provide assistance to those in need as an extension of the organization's philanthropic efforts. The Cleveland Browns Foundation provides support for those at risk in each of the focus areas with special focus given to children with disabilities. On behalf of the Cleveland Browns, we thank all of the fans and organizations who have contributed to the success of the Cleveland Browns Foundation.

KIDS

Andra Davis meets a Browns fan.

You may have seen children lined up on the sidelines during games. If not, take note next time you are at a game. These kids represent the heart and soul of the Browns outreach efforts. They are kids who cannot necessarily do all the things we are able to, but they have the biggest hearts you can imagine. We've renovated a suite at Cleveland Browns Stadium to be wheelchair accessible, and to accommodate kids with special needs. Each home game, these kids receive VIP treatment and enter the stadium where the players do, receive a personal escort to the sidelines to watch warm-ups from the Browns sideline, then to the customized suite to view the game in comfort. In addition to game day, we extend exclusive invites for these children to Browns events so they can get involved. Recently, youth from Hattie Larlham joined the Cleveland Browns 2007 Rookie Class for an exclusive tour of the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio.

In March 2007, the Cleveland Browns Foundation announced a $1.6 million commitment to the Amer-I-Can program. Through this program, the Browns aim to provide the resources needed to create a safe, non-violent atmosphere throughout the inner-city.

Currently, the program has been implemented in five Cleveland Municipal School District schools, and the first class graduated from the program in May, 2007.

The Browns Foundation works with G.R.E.A.T. (Gang Resistance Education And Training) to help prevent youth crime, violence, and gang involvement among school-aged youth in the community. Joining the United States Marshall's office, local sports teams, and impact community organizations, the Browns look forward to working to achieve safer schools and communities by reducing youth involvement in gangs.

Established in 2002, the Hats Off to Our Heroes program evolved during the 2006 season, and the Browns are proud to announce the ongoing effort to give recognition to those who serve our country and communities. The Cleveland Browns will once again dedicate each regular season home game to recognize and salute each branch of the United States Armed Forces, in addition to local police and fire representatives.

The Read with the Browns program is a staple amongst youngsters as our partnership with the Cuyahoga County Public Library (CCPL) and 3-A-Day of Dairy continues to enhance children's and families love for reading. Read with the Browns is available locally in 28 branches of the CCPL where kids can participate in Browns activities. Elements of the program are also available worldwide at clevelandbrowns.com, so kids can read along with their favorite players.

Vision First provides free eye exams for children grades K-1.

What Moves U is the Browns signature program designed to engage kids in fitness activities across their schools curriculum; so whether kids are studying science or math, they are engaging in physical activity. The program is offered in over 500 schools throughout Northeast Ohio and is made possible through the strength of our partners—the American Heart Association & Medical Mutual of Ohio. Visit clevelandbrowns.com/community to learn more, in the meantime, join the team and encourage your children or friends to get active and discover 'What Moves U'.

YOUTH FOOTBALL

Campers taking part in ball security drills.

Keeping kids healthy is the first step in providing them with opportunities to succeed. The Cleveland Browns are dedicated to improving the health and well-being of children in our community. Therefore we proudly supported the Cleveland Municipal School District Physical Fitness Competitions which reward kids for staying physically fit. Additionally, these competitions teach children to make healthy decisions, such as maintaining a healthy diet and avoiding harmful substances.

The Cleveland Browns also recognize the importance of using the game of football as a vehicle to effectuate change in our communities. It is to that end that we attempt to provide every child with an opportunity to get in the game. Through Browns Football Camps and NFL Junior Player Development Camps, we reach thousands of children each year, teaching them basic football skills and the important life lessons that accompany the game. We provide scholarship opportunities for disadvantaged children to attend Browns Football Camps held at our practice facility each summer.

For our high school student-athletes we hosted the National High School All-Star Combine, the Elite Skills Camp and Recruitment Night, and, the newly added, High School Player Development Program. All three events afforded high school football players the opportunity to showcase their athletic abilities in front of recruiters from colleges and universities throughout the United States.

Further, we invite youth football players and their chaperones to cheer on the Cleveland Browns at one of our pre-season games. As a part of the NFL initiative, "Play Football Month," we also select youth football players to be a part of our preseason pre-game festivities and to take part in our halftime exhibition during the preseason game. Also, during the season, we honor two high school student-athletes for each home game as Coach Crennel's Aspiring Stars, and we host the Punt, Pass and Kick team championship competition.

CLEVELAND BROWNS 2007 MEDIA GUIDE

The NFL announced the regular-season scheduling rotation for eight seasons (2002-09) under the club-approved realignment plan that began in the 2002 season. The interconference and intraconference divisional matchups—comprising 14 of each season's 16 regular-season games—for the next eight seasons were determined following extensive analysis and discussion with NFL clubs.

The eight season schedules will take each team through a cycle of games—home and away—against every other team in the league. In eight seasons, every team will play every other team at least twice—once home and once away.
